No pupil wall receive a diploma until he is thoroughly Account to discharge the duties of the accountant.
Stongars will be instructed in all the modern improved howardopted by the best regulated houses in the country, among where one which dispenses with the use of the Journal greatly lessening the amount of labor and liability to err, and another which renders the use of the Cash book and Journal superflames, and enables the book-keeper to pest his personal accounts daily, and his merchandise and cash as often as may suit his convenience. This latter form is more particularly designed for the use

They will be taught a simple process by which the merchart may at all times ascertain the amount of his loss or gain, together with the quantity of goods on hand, without rting to the tedious process of taking an inventory, Take institution will be permanent, and has been estab-ioned to most the already important and growing com-reserval interests of the city of Nashville and State of Ten-nessee, and it is designed to place it upon a basis inferior to bear in this country.

The importance, to every business man, of a knowledge of accounts, must be sufficiently obvious to all reflecting minds.

To the man of wealth, it is important to enable him to manage his affairs scientifically, and without pecuniary loss and the Lawrer's often called upon, in the discharge of this professional duties, to nuravel the most intricate accounts, but to the young man who depends upon his own resources for a breithned, it is invaluable. It gives him a position which nothing else can. tie bolds me post of confidential clerk in his employers, In connection with this establishment is a department for the beneal of those who wish to take lessons in writing on-ty, where an elegant hand writing will be imparted to all where an olegant amounting win of imparted to an wine place themselves under the care of the preceptor.

Pipuls entering this institution are not limited to any counter of lessons, but for a specified price may continue any branch they pursue until they are perfected, retaining the privilege of reviewing their lessons at any subsequent period, free of charge.

This delicious article combines so many meritorious qualities, that it has now become a standard favorite with the citizens of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. Dentists prescribe it in their practice most soccessfully, and from every source the most flattering hudations are awarded it. Inflamed and bleeding guins are immediately benefitted by its use; its action upon them is mild, soothing and effective. It cleanses the teeth so thoroughly that they are made to rival pearl in whitenes, and diffuse through the month such a delightful frashness that the breath is reinferred extremely sweet. It disturcts all those impurities which tend to produce decay; and, as a consequence, ties which tend to produce decay; and, as a consequence, when these are relieved the teeth must always remain Prepared only by FRANCIS ZERMAN, Droggist and
